WINS REGIONAL HONORS . . . Dudley K. Schneider, area representative for DeSoto Motor Corp., presents a bonus check to Dealer George Whittlesey whose agency here won the Southern California-Arizona region's recent sales contest. Whittlesey Motors went about 175 per cent over the quota during the 45-day contest. Whittlesey salesmen also received bonus awards of their part in the campaign which put the local dealership ahead of all others in its class in the region. (Herald Photo)

Ladies' Cookie Bake For Vets Set Aug. 9

The August meeting of the Hollywood Riviera Cookie Bake will be held at the home of Mrs. John Jansse, 180 Via la Cienega, at 8 p.m., on Aug. 9. All housewives in the area are invited to attend, bringing a batch of homemade cookies for patients at the Long Beach Veterans Hospital. The ladies will pack and wrap the cookies during the evening, with a social hour afterward.

Committee Appointed

A requested waiver of side yard setbacks at 2719 E. Dorado to allow construction of a patio will be studied by a committee of the Torrance Planning Commission, under action taken Wednesday night. The proposal was presented by Nick Chaynowski.

PECAN CROP

CONTEST WINNER NAMED . . . Virginia Gotts, "Miss Community Fair," hands name of Clark Market contest winner to Dick Allen, vice president of the market chain, who acted as master of ceremonies. Bernice McMahon of Manhattan Beach will take a 17-day, expense-paid Caribbean cruise as a result of the contest. "Oh, who'll take care of my kids?" was Mrs. McMahon's comment on being notified that she had won.

WYNELL ROBERTSON . . . Entry of the Torrance Flower Shop in the "Miss Torrance" finals scheduled here tomorrow evening is Wynell Robertson. She will compete with other Torrance beauties for the title now held by Norma Quine. Hollywood beauty experts will judge the show.

Tea, Doll Show Set Tomorrow

The second annual Mother and Daughter Tea and Doll Fashion Show, sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, will be held in the Torrance Civic Auditorium from 3 to 5 p.m. tomorrow. Winners from local doll shows held on Torrance parks and school playground areas last Tuesday will display their dolls in the following categories: Oldest doll, foreign doll, best home-made doll and doll clothes, twin dolls, most comical doll, funniest puppets, rarest doll, largest doll, smallest doll, best displayed doll, best decorated buggies, largest buggy, smallest buggy, and cradles. Dolls as old as 125 years were on display last year, as were dolls from Japan, Holland, Turkey, and many other countries. Judges for the doll show are Mrs. Victor Benstead Jr., Mrs. Willys Blount, Mrs. Anne Collins, Mrs. Helen Crooker, Mrs. Albert Isen, Mrs. Mervin M. Schwab, and Mrs. Herma Tillin. Following the judging, the doll display will be open and a program consisting of talent from local playgrounds will commence at 3:30 p.m.

Action Delayed

The request of Emily Durkin of 2109 W. 218th St., for a waiver of required land area for an additional house on her property was held over for two weeks by the Torrance Planning Commission Wednesday at her request.
